Historical/Biographical Information
Francis Lyman Windolph (1889 - 1978) was a prominent Lancaster County (PA) attorney and author. He was a graduate of the Yeates School and Franklin and Marshall College (1908). In 1911, he was admitted to the bar after a three-year clerkship. He was first published in a 1908 private printing of Today and Other Poems. His work gained national attention in 1917 when Of Names was published in the Atlantic Monthly. Windolph was also active in his community. He was a member of the Cliosophic Society, the Hamilton Club, the Lancaster Chamber of Commerce and the Pennsylvania Bar Association. He was also a Director of the Lancaster County Public Library for forty years.
