XIV. Harriot Sumner Reynolds (1832 - 1898)
XV. Eleanor Reynolds [1835 - 1923]
XVI. John Fulton Reynolds Scott [19 ? - 1956 ?]
XVII. Miscellaneous material (1765 - 1934)
XVIII. Transcripts and microfilm
XIX Reynolds Family Library

Note: Series XVII contains miscellaneous material and Series XVIII contains transcripts and microfilm which duplicates some of the original items. The Reynolds Family Library (Series XIX) contains books owned by members of the family including James Lefevre Reynolds, John Reynolds and John Fulton Reynolds. Presumably, these books were later acquired by James Lefevre Reynolds and all became part of his personal library. These books are listed at the end of the inventory.

Language of Materials
All materials in English.

Abstract
This collection consist of letters, diaries, scrapbooks, hand-drawn maps, clippings, photographs, transcripts, war communications and books relating to three generations of the Reynolds family of Lancaster, PA. The collection consists mostly of the papers of William Reynolds (1815 - 1879) and John Fulton Reynolds (1820-1863). Scrapbooks were compiled by Eleanor Reynolds and mostly chronicle the military career of brother John. Books (monographs) that were included in the Reynolds Family Papers are probably from the personal library of James Lefevre Reynolds. The journals which William Reynolds wrote during the U.S. Exploring Expedition are available on microfilm. In 2003, portions of the Reynolds Family Papers were digitized with the support of a 2002 NETShare grant award.

Administrative Information

Acquisition Information

Custodial History (Provenance)
The bulk of the Reynolds Family Papers were donated to the Archives and Special Collections Department on two separate occasions, in 1955 and 1962, by members of the Reynolds family. The donors were: Mrs. John Fulton Reynolds Scott, wife of John Fulton Reynolds' grand nephew; Katharine Hoffman Kline, granddaughter of Lydia Reynolds Evans; and Mary Reynolds Kline Shannahahan, daughter of Katharine Hoffman Kline. The papers had been in the possession of the family up until the time of the donation to the college. Some of the items were first assembled by members of the Reynolds family in the mid-1860s, with family ownership of the material being continuous up until the collection's transfer to Franklin and Marshall College.

Additional papers consisting mostly of the correspondence of Lydia Moore (Reynolds) Evans and Nathan Evans to/from members of the Reynolds family were donated in 2013 by Katie Cleaver from the estate of Ann Hoffman Cleaver.

Access Restrictions

Historical/Biographical Information

The Reynolds family of Lancaster Pa. were prominent members of the community in the nineteenth century. John Reynolds (1787-1853) was owner/publisher of the Lancaster Journal, manager of Cornwall Iron Furnace for Robert Coleman, friend of James Buchanan, and Trustee of Franklin College. His sons William and John Fulton served as officers in the U.S. Navy and Army. William (1815-1879) participated in and chronicled the U.S. Exploring Expedition of 1838-1842 while John (1820-1863) served in the Civil War as Major General of Volunteers and was killed at the Battle of Gettysburg July 1, 1863. Another son James Lefevre Reynolds was a prominent PA attorney and Trustee of Franklin and Marshall College.

Scope and Content Note
The collection consists of letters, diaries, scrapbooks, hand-drawn maps, clippings, photographs, transcripts, war communications and books. Some of the items were first assembled by members of the Reynolds family in the mid-1860s, with family ownership of the material being continuous up until the transfer of the collection to Franklin and Marshall College. It is the understanding of the department that items relating to the daughters of John and Lydia Moore Reynolds have been retained by the family.

The earliest item in the collection dates from 1756 with the bulk of the material covering the period from 1830 - 1880 and consisting of mostly William Reynolds (1815 - 1879) and John Fulton Reynolds (1820-1863) items.

Scrapbooks were compiled by Eleanor Reynolds. Books (monographs) that were included in the Reynolds Family Papers are probably from the personal library of James Lefevre Reynolds. These books are listed at the end of the manuscript collection inventory. The journals which William Reynolds wrote during the U.S. Exploring Expedition 1838-1842 are available on microfilm. William’s unofficial journals are also available in published format (abridged) as The Private Journal of William Reynolds edited by Nathaniel and Thomas Philbrick, New York: Penguin Books, 2004. An unabridged transcription of these journals is also available in electronic format. Letters written by William Reynolds to his family during the expedition and numbered 1-21 are available transcribed and published as Voyage to the Southern Ocean: the Letters of Lieutenant William Reynolds from the U.S. Exploring Expedition, 1838-1842 edited by Anne Hoffmann Cleaver and E. Jeffrey Stann, Annapolis: Naval Institute Press, 1988.

In 2003, portions of the Reynolds Family Papers were digitized with the support of a 2002 NETShare grant award. The award program is an extension of the Federal Library Services and Technology Act (LSTA), and is administered in Pennsylvania through the Department of Education, Office of Commonwealth Libraries.

The digitized portion of the collection is temporarily unavailable.
